The Leonard & Bina Ellen Art Gallery presents the first major monographic survey of Chilean/German artist Lorenza Böttner's lifework. Lorenza Böttner: Requiem for the Norm, is curated by philosopher Paul B. Preciado, one of the leading thinkers in the study of gender and sexual politics.

Ernst Lorenz Böttner was born in Chile in 1959. He lost both his arms following an accident at the age of eight. During his rehabilitation process in Germany, the young Ernst Lorenz rejected prosthetics and being educated as a disabled child. It was during his studies in visual arts in Kassel that Böttner assumed a publicly female identity and took the name Lorenza.

This trans and disabled artist offers a daring exploration of the simultaneity of embodiments and the complexity of gender expression. Over a short period of sixteen years interrupted by her death from AIDS-related causes in 1994, she produced over two hundred works painting and drawing with her mouth and feet, working in photography, installation and dance, and often performing in the public space of the street. The exhibition also features documentary videos, correspondence and photographs from her archives.

The curator of the exhibition Paul B. Preciado observes in his essay that Lorenza's work is characterized by "criticism of the disciplinary divide between genders and genres, between painting, dance, performance, and photography, between object and subject, masculine and feminine, homosexuality and heterosexuality, the normative body and the trans body, between active and passive, and between valid and invalid."
