

THE ANN DUNCAN TRAVEL AND TUITION AWARD AT THE LEONARD & BINA ELLEN ART GALLERY
2023-2024

The Ann Duncan Award was established in 1997 by the Leonard & Bina Ellen Art Gallery to honour the memory of Ann Duncan, who, through her writings on the arts, played a significant role in supporting the work of artists in the early stages of their careers. This award offers the exceptional possibility for full-time students at the undergraduate level in the Fine Arts to travel to significant art events around the world in order to experience first-hand the art of today. This award is given every two years alternatively one year, to a Studio Arts student (in 2009, 2013, 2017, cancelled in 2022), and the other year to an Art History student (in 2011, 2015, 2017, 2019, cancelled for 2021).

In 2023 the Travel and Tuition Award is to be given to an undergraduate student registered as a full-time student in Studio Arts to help offset the cost of travel to a significant international contemporary art event*such as one of the many significant biennials, Documenta, Manifesta, or any of the many other large-scale art events taking place between April 1, 2023, and January 30, 2024. The award also contributes to the cost of full-time tuition (and fees) for the academic year (2023-2024) beginning in September 2023.

*Art fairs, art courses and residencies are excluded from this award.

The Leonard & Bina Ellen Art Gallery is a contemporary public art gallery at Concordia University dedicated to the critical framing of current art and curatorial practices. More information can be obtained by visiting the Gallery's website at ellengallery.concordia.ca.

Requirements and selection criteria are also posted on the Undergraduate Awards Bulletins on Concordia University's Student hub Web page and on the Ellen Gallery's website.

Eligibility: Awarded to a full-time undergraduate student in the second year of study enrolled in Studio Arts. The student must have completed a minimum of 30 credits and maintained a minimum A- average at Concordia University. The applicant must be enrolled full time in the 2023-24 academic year in order to receive the contribution to the tuition.

Specifications: The Award is intended to cover the following costs of travel to a major international art event: economy airfare to and from the event, accommodation for the duration of stay, meals and local transportation, entry and other related fees to a maximum of $ 2500.CAD. The award also partly offsets the student's full-time tuition fees for the academic year 2023-2024 to a maximum of $ 2500 CAD.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

The application must include the following assembled in one PDF document:
If incomplete, it will not be considered.

Part I

THE ANN DUNCAN AWARD FOR THE VISUAL ARTS 2023-2024

- Your name
- Mailing address
- Email address
- Telephone number
- Student number
- Area of specialization
- Number of credits completed by December 30, 2022, and proof of full-time enrolment as well as an up-to-date transcript of your academic record since entry into the program.
- Proof of current full-time status in Studio Arts or in a Major in Studio Arts
- The name, title, phone number and email address of two faculty members (tenured or non-tenured) who can provide an appreciation of you as a student.
- Your signature and the date

Part II

- Name of the event, dates of travel, itinerary and length of stay
- A written proposal (500 words max.) demonstrating a clear connection between their research interest and the event in question. PLEASE NOTE that if a student is pursuing a double major in Art History and Studio Arts, their proposal will be considered only if it addresses the area that the award is focusing on that year, in this case Studio Arts.

Deadline for application and address

Deadline: November 30, 2022, at 12:00 p.m.

Applications must have the title "DUNCAN APPLICATION 2023-2024" in the subject window.

Applications are accepted in French or English.

Applications are accepted only via email at ellen.artgallery@concordia.ca

Selection

The candidate will be selected by a committee composed of the Director of the Gallery, the gallery's curator of research and/or the Gallery's Coordinator of Public Programs. Results will be announced before the end of the year.

PLEASE NOTE that in the 30 days following the trip the student must submit to the Gallery a written account of his or her trip (500 max) explaining how visiting this event has impacted his or her work as a student artist.

If you require more information, please contact michele.theriault@concordia.ca